1.PART 4

QUESTIONS 21-27

Read the article about Esther and then answer the questions. For questions 21-27, mark A, B, or C on the answer sheet.

ESTHER'S STORY

When Esther left school at the age of sixteen, her aunt Flory gave her £500 for her birthday. Most of Esther's friends decided to go to college, but Esther used her aunt's money to start her own business. She bought fruit, sugar and some glass jars and began making her own jam. She sold the jam for £1 a jar to her friends and she soon doubled her aunt's £500.

At first, her parents didn't want Esther to spend her time making jam and they thought that she should study instead. They hoped that one day she would be a teacher or a doctor. But Esther didn't listen to them. She just kept on making jam. After a few months, she started selling it to the local market. Then she started making orange juice. She sold this to a school where one of her friends worked.

After two years, her business was very large, and her parents were very pleased with her. She made all kinds of food which she sold to shops and supermarkets. She was so busy that she had to get some people to work for her.

21. Why did Aunt Flory give Esther some money?
A. Esther asked for it.      B. Esther's friends needed it.      C. It was a present.

CANADA GEESE

Canada Geese are large blue and white birds. When autumn arrives, they have to fly south where the weather is warmer. The winters are so cold in Canada that the birds die if they stay there.

Last spring, Bill Lishman found sixteen young Canada Geese on his farm. They had lost their parents. Bill thought, ‘These young birds won’t know what to do in the autumn.’

Bill had a small plane and he decided to teach the birds to follow him. All through the summer, he went on short trips in his plane and the young geese flew after him.

When the cold weather arrived in autumn, Bill flew to Virginia in the United States, 600 miles south of his home in Canada. The geese followed him all the way. Bill left the geese in Virginia and he returned home.

This spring, Bill was waiting for the birds to come back. They didn’t arrive, so Bill flew to Virginia to get them. He looked for them for two weeks but he couldn’t find them.

When he arrived back home, Bill found the geese waiting for him. They had found their way home without him!

Jann Mardenborough

Jann Mardenborough has loved cars since he was given a toy one as a baby. He loved them so much that when he was eight, his father took him to a place where children race small cars called karts. Staff at the kart centre told Jann he drove so well, he might one day become a racing driver. Unfortunately, the kart centre closed soon afterwards, and there wasn't another one near enough to his home that he could get to.

As he couldn't race karts any more, Jann decided to try computer racing games. After lots of practice, he became very good. However, he never told his parents what he was doing. Then, one day, when he was 18, he told them that he was one of the top ten winners of a computer racing competition. They were very surprised. His prize was to drive a real car in a race against the other nine top players.

It was Jann's first time in a racing car, but, amazingly, he won the race! The prize this time was a free course to learn to be a racing driver. He did really well and has found a job driving in a racing team.

We meet twice

My name is Anna King and I was born in a small town called Madison in Wyoming in the centre of the USA. When I was twenty, I moved to the east coast, to a town just south of New York, to start a job in a department store. One day, a young man with short brown hair who was shopping in the store looked at me and asked, “Are you Michelle Golden?”

“No,” I said. “But do you mean Michelle Golden from Madison?” He did. I told him that I was at school with Michelle. She wasn’t much older than me and people often said that we looked just like each other. Then the young man told me that Michelle was in the same history class at university as he was.

Six months later, I got a better job with another department store and moved to the west coast to work at their San Francisco store. One day on my way home from work, a young man with short brown hair passed me in the street and asked, “Are you Michelle Golden?”

“No,” I answered. “You asked me that when we met in a shop several thousand miles away, near New York.”

QUESTIONS 21-27

Read the article about Ravi Patra, who works on music programmes on television, and then answer the questions. Choose A, B or C for your answers.

Ravi Patra

In 2006, Ravi Patra started working for a music company and three years later, in 2009, got a job on the music television channel Rock TV.

Ravi enjoys working on television, but when he was younger he wanted to fly planes. Later, he became more interested in football. But Ravi has always loved music, so he tried to get work with Rock TV. His boss says he gave him the job because he wanted it more than anybody else!

When he started at Rock TV, Ravi arrived first at the office and was the last to leave at 10 in the evening. Now, he starts a bit later, but he is still busy until 10 pm. Before lunch, he usually writes his words for the show and in the afternoon he has meetings or makes Rock TV advertisements.

Ravi has many popular bands on his show and the stars are often interesting people. But Ravi knows that everyone watches the show to hear great music. Getting that right is more important than anything else.

Ravi knows what questions to ask the band members. He tries to make them laugh and this is easy for him. Sometimes he cannot remember their names but he always has information about the bands to help him.

Sadly, his work means that he doesn't see his friends enough, but he has great fun on skiing trips and listens to music all the time.

Read the article about a teenage rower. Are sentences 21-27 “Right” (A), “Wrong” (B), or “Doesn’t say” (C). Choose A, B or C for your answers.

David Rawson

David Rawson, 15, is one of the best rowers of his age in the USA. He came from Connecticut, and spends most of his time practicing on many rivers near his home.

David's dad, Martin, also enjoys rowing. "David's much better than me, but I go with him when I can," he says. David's mother, Wendy, doesn't go rowing herself but she is happy to take them to and from the rivers in her car.

It's an expensive sport. The Rawsons have seven boats, costing between $1500 and $4000 each. But you can see how important rowing is to the family when you go to their home. There are many photos of David rowing and several rowing boats in the garage.

About 18 months ago, David started rowing on the sea. This sport is similar to surfing except that you sit in a special boat instead of standing on a board. David loves it, and it means he can continue with his sport in the summer when his favourite rivers don't have enough water in them.

Next year David is hoping to go to the Premier Rowing Academy where he'll study rowing as well as all the usual school subjects.

0 David Rawson is better than most other rowers of his age in his country.

QUESTIONS 21-27

Read the article about Wendy's holiday in Peru, South America.

For questions 21 – 27, choose the best answer A, B or C.

MY JUNGLE ADVENTURE

Since I returned from my ten-day holiday in Peru, friends have asked me, "Where have you been?" I love traveling, "Oh! I went to South America!"

I went there with my parents. There were ten of us in the group, but we'd never met each other before. On the first day, we travelled with a guide for eight hours up the river to our jungle camp. It was so exciting to be in the Amazon rainforest! Noisy parrots and monkeys filled the trees and I saw insects of all sizes and colors on the paths around our tents.

We always felt safe when our guide, Omar, was with us. Omar could speak English, French and Spanish and came from a village far away on the other side of the mountains. One day he took us into the jungle and found all kinds of unusual trees and flowers for us to look at. He even cooked a lovely sweet rice dish for us to eat before we went to bed at night.

My holiday in Peru was a great adventure and I'll never forget it.

In a park in a small town in central England, John Pickering cuts the grass and waters the flowers. But all last week he was in Tokyo and millions of Japanese people watched the thirty-five-year-old gardener on television because John is the number one singer in Japan at the moment. John visited Japan a few months ago to sing in dance clubs in Osaka and Nagoya. A disc jockey heard his songs and played them on his radio show. Hundreds of young people phoned the radio and asked the disc jockey to play the songs once more.

John, who uses the name Jon Otis when he sings in Japan, is not going to stop working in the park in England. He does not know yet how much he will earn from his music. ‘I must keep my job in the park,’ he says. ‘I still have to pay my bills!’ The other gardeners do not know that he is famous in Japan. They’ve never even heard him sing.

John’s wife, Denise, a hospital worker, says, ‘This will not change the way we live. I only know John Pickering, not Jon Otis!'
